

HOLD WOODSIDE FOR GRAND JURY

Edmond H. Woodside, the eighteen-year-old messenger for Swartzschild & Sulzberger, charged with stealing $2,021 belonging to his employers. He was held for the grand jury under bond of $5,000, which he was unable to furnish, and he was locked up in the County Jail. Two weeks ago Woodside, whose home is in Medford, started for the Shawmut Bank and the Boston Trust Company to borrow $2,000 in money and bonds. He went to New York City, where he was arrested in a house on Massachusetts Avenue. His mother attributes his fall to drink.

FIRE NEAR POWDER ON GERMAN WARSHIP

BERLIN, March 8.—Fire raged for three hours on the German battleship Posad, continually threatening to reach the magazine, which is reported to have exploded today from Kiel. The damage will require several weeks in the dry dock for the Posad.

COLDS Often Lead To Serious Trouble.

It is a well-known fact that pulmonary tuberculosis is an insidious in its workings that its victims seldom realize their danger until after the disease has taken a strong hold. Lungs, cases are frequently discovered in apparently insignificant colds.

Colds, if neglected, often lead to serious consequences. To break up a cold quickly there is nothing so effective as the simple mixture of two ounces of glycerine and a half-ounce of Virgin oil. This mixture, when taken in any form, will break up a cold in a large bottle. Shaks and take a cold, and the disease will be cured. It is a well-known fact that pulmonary tuberculosis is an insidious in its workings that its victims seldom realize their danger until after the disease has taken a strong hold.

Because of its insidious nature, it is often difficult to detect. It is a well-known fact that pulmonary tuberculosis is an insidious in its workings that its victims seldom realize their danger until after the disease has taken a strong hold.

Dares Death in Flames to Save Two Families

"SARAH CEPINO," "FRANCIS SAGNIA," "NETTIE CEPINO."
One of the heroes of Charleston fire and two children whose lives he saved.

Four patrons and two others braved death earlier in the week threatened to go North early today to rescue from a raging fire two families which had been trapped in the three-story double tenement house, at Nos. 34 and 36 Perry street, Charlestown. The girls, hardly a year old and four other little children were carried out. The heat of the fire was intense and the smoke stifling and suffocating. The entire construction of the building was of wood.

Thirty children who were the worst sufferers from the fire, believe it was, were rescued. He has told the police of a man

JUDGE FALLON IS SUMMONSED BY PELLETIER

Judge Joseph D. Fallon of the South Boston Police Court, who is also president of the Union Institution for Savings, was summoned to the District Attorney's office today with three other officials of the bank. It is presumed that the grand jury considered the case of John H. Fallon, brother of the bank, who is accused of the robbery of $1,200 of the institution's money, and that Judge Fallon and the others were called as witnesses.

A peculiar situation has arisen in this case. Judge Fallon, who himself is a grand juror, and is qualified to advise persons in legal matters, was summoned to appear Thursday in Superior Court to show cause why he should not himself be held in contempt because of an advertisement he published in the Boston Herald.

The advertisement included the following words: "Last Monday, we discovered that John H. Fallon, the fellow who had stolen $1,200 of the bank's money, was in the bank office. We, and we alone, are entitled to credit for the discovery."

Scenes and Figures at Boston's Great Auto Show

THOUSANDS IN TRIBUTE TO AUTO KING AT THE GREATEST OF ALL SHOWS

By J. C. KERRISON.

Thousands of enthusiastic subjects and nearly two thousands of visitors to the auto show, which opened today, the 10th of March, at the Boston Automobile Show in Mechanics Building. The entire throng of perhaps 25,000 motorists in the popular were affected well with "motoritis," and the last car seemed to be a thorough inspection of the new improvements and the points of the hundreds of cars at exhibition from all parts of this country and from Europe. King Auto's family, from "Milton Buckle," represented by Evans cars down to "Common People" with a $500 or $600 runabout—all their wants are represented at the show by cars that are all priced, up, polished and powdered until they shine like the latter's coat.

$25,000,000 Worth of Cars.
Thousands of visitors from all parts of New England visited the show. The multitude was moved and climbed over all of the cars. They were curious and they wanted to know "why."
They should have been told by courteous well-groomed automobile salesmen, who have the automobile business from A to Z and then back and forth.

It didn't make any difference to the visitors whether it was a tiny runabout or a sturdy roadster or a massive limousine—they inspected all of the make and out side workings and insured a great deal. The hundreds of automobiles on exhibit there are estimated to be worth $25,000,000. The show closes any auto show that Boston has ever seen, according to the unanimous opinion of all of the manufacturers, experts and salesmen.
The automobile came into its own from the moment that the big doors swung open to the morning until the last light sickened out.

Hails Like Fairy Gardens.
The auto show, the thing, seemed to be the last of the season. From every viewpoint the auto show shows much more "class," as one tried man would say if he dropped in for inspection, than any of the former shows.

Grand Hall and Machinery Hall in Mechanics Building looked as they never did before. Grand Hall has been converted into a beautiful British people, artistic and interesting. Beautiful, fragrant flowers bloom in every corner. Machinery Hall has been transformed into an apple orchard, where apple trees, all pink and white, bloom as naturally as though they were in an English orchard.

In the crowded branches, little red cars, and the try their utmost to get a look at the latest models.

The entire show has been produced. There is nothing extreme or foolish about it. It represents simply the latest development in body building.

WE are often asked by prospective purchasers why the AJAX EXTRA HEAVY NON-SKID tires do not skid. We answer—"It's in the Tread."

In creating an absolutely non-skid tire that could be guaranteed for 5,000 miles or 200 days' service, the same as all Ajax tires, the weak points of other so-called non-skid products were studied and guarded against.

The tread of the Ajax Non-Skid is made of Para Rubber divided into rectangular shaped blocks with grooved edges. This provides traction, or holding power, under load. The traction and side resistance are there when needed, but do not diminish the easy riding and long-wearing qualities found in all Ajax tires. There are no steel strips to wear smooth and become a skidding surface—just rubber, but no shaped that skidding is prevented.

Hit of The Show.—The AJAX AIR GAUGE, a new invention, pocket size, showing air pressure at all times, with the valve of excess pressure for all side tires engaged on. This device, without instrument is made by A. Schubert Bros. Inc. The price is $10.00.

DUPES MISER BY WAR POEM. SAYS WOMAN

BARBARA FRIETCHE.

Up from the meadows rich with corn,
Clear in the early September morn,
On that pleasant morn of the early fall
When Lee marched over the mountain wall,
O'er the mountains winding down,
Hove and out into Frederick town,
Up rose old Barbara Frieche then,
Bowed with her fourscore years and ten;
Borest of all in Frederick town,
She took to the flag the men banded down,
Up the street came the relief train,
Stonewall Jackson riding alone,
Under his smothered hat and right
He clanked the old dog and the old knight,
"Halt!" the dust-blown ranks about fast,
"Halt!"—out blazed the rifle blast.

It silenced the windows, pines and ash;
It sent the banners with woe and gash,
Quick as a fell from the smokeless staff,
Down Barbara snatched the silver staff,
She leaped far out on the window sill,
And clank it forth with a royal will,
"Show, if you must, this old gray head,
But spare your country's dust," she said,
A shade of sadness, a blush of shame,
The older nature within him stirred
To life at that woman's deed and word,
"Who touches a hair on you gray head
Dine like a dog! March on," he said.

"I don't want my children to grow up
and have an erroneous opinion of the North," said the poetess Barbara Frieche, should be eliminated from the books in our schools.

That is the sentiment of Mrs. B. A. Keane, of No. 104 Cedar street, Boston. She has asked the School Board to take action on the matter. Her letter came up last night at the meeting of the board and was placed on the floor. Mrs. Keane was formerly a school teacher at Gloucester and has a sister teaching there now. She has six children. When asked to-day she said:

"I am not a Southern woman. I was born and reared in the North. When I was a girl I learned this lesson. I recall the scene that was put into the files. 'A shade of sadness, a blush of shame,' 'show, if you must, this old gray head, but spare your country's dust.' The soldier nature, etc."

"I think we are all agreed that as soon as we have learned what fought the side of the South as on the side of the North, and there was no such thing as 'shame' and 'their noble nature' was not reserved for 'our people'."

"I was led to believe that Stonewall Jackson was the leader of the South. I was not until I was a woman grown that I learned the truth of the matter. When I was a child my heart went out in sympathy for the Southern people."

"The circulation of the EVENING AMERICAN is 200,000 copies, more than its next highest competitor and 75,000 more than all the other evening papers of Boston combined."

THE LITTLE THINGS

HE little things in the conduct of a drug business are of the utmost importance. To the average person who might judge drugs by their appearance only there would never occur the thought that in the selection of drugs more than the mere appearance is to be considered. For instance, do you know that Cascara Bark, that common household article, used for constipation, must be taken from a tree that is at least three years old and the bark must be collected one year before being used? Unless so aged, it contains a ferment which produces a gripping effect.

Our Cascara Bark is properly aged. Another example: Wild Cherry, very frequently used in cough mixtures, should be collected in autumn. At that season of the year it contains greater medicinal properties.

Our Wild Cherry is collected properly. Another example: Extract Vanilla—the recent pure food regulations require that all Extract of Vanilla be made of the pure bean, but there are all grades of beans. The Tahiti, which costs at about 80c or 90c a pound, up to the select Mexican, which costs $2 to $6 per pound only.

Our Vanilla Extract is guaranteed made of select Mexican Beans only. Epsom Salts, that well known cathartic that can be found in almost every household, unless properly purified, may contain some traces of arsenic. Our Epsom Salts is proven to be free from arsenic, each barrel we open being carefully analyzed in our laboratory.

There are examples without number which prove the necessity of buying your drugs from a house with a reputation. You can rely on Riker-Jaynes quality.

WE GIVE LEGAL TRADING STAMPS. ASK FOR THEM. RIKER-JAYNES DRUG STORES. You are SAFE when you buy at Riker-Jaynes.

VARIETY

When a man enters my store he is surprised at the great variety of styles in Woolens in the original pieces, as they come from the mill, and when he asks for Blue, I can show him 25 styles of blue, in serges, shadow stripes, checks or fancy blue worsteds.

Or if he wants the new shades of Brown, I can show all the latest shades of Mustard Browns, and never in the history of tailoring have the effects been so beautiful as this season.

Or if he is sedate and likes gray (I consider my store the clothing headquarters of New England for the Doctors, Law Makers and other professional men), I can show 50 styles of gray, in either slarklike weaves or the new two-tone effect, plain serge or the old reliable gray clay, in all the different shades which won't show dust or dirt, and brush easily, and which are all this season's goods.

QUALITY

This season, when all the medium priced clothiers are using a wool fabric which loses all suppleness of shape, I use a strictly all wool worsted, thatoughly cold water spun, which I can hold their shape.

LABOR and

MANUFACTURE

I originated Mitchell's concave shoulder eleven years ago, and it has been copied extensively throughout this section of the country ever since. My root hugs the neck, and no matter if the suit only costs $27.50, it will be made with an all-wool canvas and genuine French hatching, which makes a front that will stand up there like written in your respect. All garments are made in my own shops by well paid labor and under the finest sanitary conditions possible. This is a subject that I will treat on later with a series of photographs and

The foreign demand for 5 per cent. interest appears to be indicated, and as there are plenty of them in this market, there is no reason why the people abroad should not be accommodated.

That the change should have picked up the industrialists to show the peculiar movement of the bear market. It is the favored securities, now, the public buying them freely, and a good deal in them is most creditable.

Advises needed in the Street from the parts of the country are to the effect that business is improving on all sides and that the Spring outlook is as good as any for the winter. New orders are coming in from the West, and the market is suffering from the depression owing to the slump in the stock market in January and the early part of February.

One important thing is now established: The industrialists are not in the market and iron industry has turned to affirmation of property. The same is true.

Good stocks had a sharp drop when compared with the low rates of interest, and as Spring opportunities and business become more active, confidence will rise and the market will be in a better position to meet the demand for the same.

It is remarkable how confident the Street is in a decision by the Supreme Court in the case of the Standard Oil Co. vs. The United States, which will be a great relief to the market.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Stock market quotations were narrow in Wall Street today. There was said to have been good selling of steel shares, although it did not affect the price of the shares in any great extent. Railroad stocks showed a better tone than the industrial and under the leadership of New York Central, Reading and Union Pacific, a firmer tone prevailed.

Apparitions and the other metal stocks were inclined to wax, which affected the lead copper share that slightly. Franklyn and Inland had shown strength with the foreign, when two others came on the scene.

After a quiet and a sudden 2 point drop in the morning, there was a recovery, and the market closed at 1 1/2. There was no change in the price of the shares in any great extent.
